

Answer Key

Multiple Choice Questions

1. b) Activate receptors
2. b) Gastrointestinal ulceration
3. b) Inhibition of cell wall synthesis
4. c) Anticholinergic effects
5. a) Apomorphine
6. b) Nephrotoxicity
7. c) Naloxone
8. b) Diuretics
9. c) Dextromethorphan
10. b) Lower blood pressure
11. a) Metoclopramide
12. b) Immunosuppression
13. c) Antihypertensive
14. a) Levothyroxine
15. b) Anesthetic
16. a) Albuterol
17. a) Treat hyperthyroidism
18. a) Meclizine
19. b) Anticoagulant
20. a) Omeprazole
21. b) Decrease inflammation
22. a) Methocarbamol
23. b) Anticonvulsant
24. a) Loperamide
25. c) Analgesic

True/False Questions

26. True
27. False
28. False
29. False
30. True
31. True

- 32. True
- 33. True
- 34. True
- 35. True
- 36. True
- 37. False
- 38. True
- 39. True
- 40. True
- 41. False
- 42. True
- 43. True
- 44. True
- 45. True

Short Answer Questions

- 46. Inhibit bacterial DNA gyrase and topoisomerase IV, preventing DNA replication.
- 47. Increased risk of diabetes mellitus.
- 48. Trilostane or Mitotane.
- 49. Gabapentin is used primarily for pain management, especially neuropathic pain, and as an adjunctive therapy for seizures.
- 50. Dexmedetomidine is primarily used as a sedative and analgesic in veterinary practice.